

Knifemakers' Guild Show

SPECTACLE OF STEEL

Some of the world's finest handmades graced the 26th Guild Show

■ all knife photos by Weyer

Carving Artist It took Charles Roulin two months and four days to complete the handle of his ATS-34 dagger. He had to bore holes, carve "bridges" between them, carve the small animals, refine them with a dental fraise, and then file them with a watchmaker's file. His asking price: $11,660.